Opportunity, Inc. of Palm Beach County offers low cost, quality preschool child care, educational programming and parent support to low income families, single parent families, and families in crisis. It offers a comprehensive nationally accredited program of school readiness, training, fine and performing arts, recreation, health and nutrition, social development and field trip enrichment specifically designed to prepare children of low income families to begin public school on an equal footing with their classmates. Accredited by the National Accreditation Commission, recognized as a Five Star Gold Seal School of Excellence by the Florida Department of Children and Families, the Opportunity Early Childhood Center programs are highly subsidized by private funders which allows the tuition fees affordable to everyone.

West Palm 100 is a 501(c)(3) social and civic organization comprised of young professionals that are dedicated to supporting West Palm Beach's children, families and neighborhoods through the donation of time, money and people power. The organization supports many local service oriented organizations in West Palm Beach and has a very active social calendar with popular monthly happy hours at various West Palm Beach establishments.

The Children's Services Council's mission is to enhance the lives of children and their families and enable them to attain their full potential by providing a unified context within which children's needs can be identified and resolved by all members of the community. To achieve this, the Council plans, develops, funds, and evaluates programs and promotes public policies which benefit Palm Beach County's children and families.
